

Coffman Statement on President's Address on Deficits

(WASHINGTON) - Congressman Mike Coffman (R-CO) issued the following statement today in response to President Obama's deficit reduction speech:

“President Obama’s speech today confirms that his ideas about solving our fiscal problems amount to little more than taxing job creators and rationing health care, instead of reducing government spending and instituting long-term structural reforms.”

#